Those who missed out have a few more days to pre-order the 18+ hour conference DVD and 450+ page instruction manual for just $397 RIGHT HERE...when we begin shipping in mid-December, the price jumps to $797 as this is BY FAR the most comprehensive penny stock trading DVD package ever made.

Firms will soon learn there are going to be consequences from now on and they'll either have to cut the shit and evolve into something real or perish like any of the financial dinosaurs inevitably will:

Bait and Switch gimmick

The site marketgeometry.com uses the old “bait and switch” gimmick. It offers mentorship to traders at various levels of paid subscription.

I subscribed and paid for the mini-mentorship program at marketgeometry.com. According to the web site, I would get 3 days a week of mentorship from Timothy Morge. The days were Mon/Wed/Fri.

Wednesdays were also run by Shane Blankenship but Morge would sometimes “sit in” to make side comments on the presentation by Blankenship.
